

Welcome to Nelson Mandela Community Primary School.

Welcome to Nelson Mandela Community Primary School. Our aim is to ensure that children at our school develop an enjoyment of learning and achieve to the best of their abilities in every area of school life. We do this by providing the highest quality education for each and every child and by working in partnership with parents, families and the wider community.

Nelson Mandela Community Primary School is situated in Sparkbrook close to the city centre of Birmingham.

The school opened in September 1987 but was formally opened by Bishop Desmond Tutu on 22nd April 1988. We are very proud that Nelson Mandela himself visited the school on 11th October 1993.

We are committed to giving all children every opportunity to achieve the highest of standards. The achievements, attitudes, health, safety and well-being of every child are very important to us.

Our school is a special place where children, parents, staff and governors work together in a supportive, caring, happy learning community. We want all children to enjoy all areas of their personal, social and academic education and be prepared to take their place as local citizens of Birmingham and in the global community of the future.

Visitors to our school are always welcome.

Amy Lassman

Headteacher

